Khorrami Pollard & Abir LLP Founding Partner Shawn Khorrami Elected to AIDS Project Los Angeles Board of Directors

Board-level involvement underscores ongoing commitment to provide advocacy, essential services and improved quality of life for people living with HIV and AIDS

LOS ANGELES, CA – As part of its continuing commitment to supporting and enhancing public health and welfare, Shawn Khorrami, founding partner of Khorrami Pollard & Abir LLP (KPA), a national law firm representing plaintiffs, has joined the Board of Directors of AIDS Project Los Angeles (APLA), one of the largest non-profit AIDS service organizations in the country.

In his new role, Khorrami will help lead efforts supporting APLA's mission of improving the lives of people affected by the HIV disease; reducing the incidence of HIV infection; and advocating for fair and effective HIV-related public policy. He will serve on the APLA Fund Development Committee, which leads the organization's fundraising efforts.

"As a firm, Khorrami Pollard & Abir actively and enthusiastically supports APLA and public health issues, and I am proud to deepen that involvement through Board membership," said Khorrami. "This is an extremely challenging time for social services organizations in California, so I look forward to working diligently with the Board to safeguard and expand the essential, lifesaving programs enabled through APLA."

Most recently, KPA's attorneys and staff took part in the 25th Annual AIDS Walk Los Angeles, where they collected nearly $20,000 in donations – placing Team Khorrami Pollard & Abir 17th on the list of top fundraisers. In total, 1,638 teams and individuals came together for the event and raised more than $3.1 million for the fight against AIDS. Khorrami also hosted a reception at his home this summer to raise awareness and funds for APLA. The event was co-hosted by KPA's Chief Operating Officer Alan Strasburg, who just completed his third two-year term on APLA's Board.
